Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest a Support Worker position with you. My passion for helping people and improving lives, coupled with my extensive experience in providing complex care within a homecare setting, makes me a strong candidate for this role. I was recommended to this company by a coworker named Sukdeep.

In my previous roles, I have worked closely with individuals with diverse and complex needs, including youth and disabled people, developing a proven ability to problem-solve effectively in challenging situations and maintain composure under pressure. I am adept at accurately assessing and responding to the unique needs of clients and staff, and I excel at fostering a supportive and positive environment. My experience has honed my skills in de-escalation, interpersonal communication, and delivering compassionate, client-centered care.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I have attached my resume for your review and welcome the opportunity to discuss my qualifications further in an interview.

Sincerely,

Kurtis Beau Carnachan
